Dear <Salutation>

SIMPLIFYING OUR BUSINESS: THE TRANSFER OF AXA WEALTH LIMITED POLICIES TO PHOENIX LIFE LIMITED

We wrote to you in June to update you on the sale of AXA Wealth Limited (AWL) to the Phoenix Group, and to introduce our new brand 'Phoenix Wealth'. We're writing now to update you on our plans to transfer the business of AWL and what that means for you. The key points are:

- We are planning to transfer all business in AWL, including your policy(ies) to Phoenix Life Limited (PLL), another one of the companies within the Phoenix Group.
- We will apply to the High Court for permission to transfer all of the business. If the High Court gives that permission, we expect the transfer to occur on 8 December 2017.
- Your policy details and terms and conditions will remain the same and your benefits will continue to be paid in the same way as before.

In this letter and the enclosed leaflets we refer to the proposed changes as 'the Scheme'.

What will happen to my policy and my benefits?

Your policy benefits will not change. No changes will be made to your terms and conditions as a result of the transfer and you will continue to be able to invest in the same funds as now. The Scheme will not change the way in which the funds are managed and invested or the way the unit prices are calculated.

You'll continue to see Phoenix Wealth on our correspondence to you and on our website. From shortly after 8 December 2017 your payments and bank statements will refer to the company name, Phoenix Life Limited. If you pay contributions you will continue to make the same payments in the same way. Direct debit payments will automatically become payable to PLL. Your rights under the direct debit guarantee are not affected - please see the direct debit notice attached for further information. If you receive income or withdrawal payments these will continue to be paid by PLL in the same way as they are currently paid by AWL.

The Scheme will not change the level of service you receive.

Financial security for your policy will be maintained by PLL. PLL holds more capital than required by regulation so that it can continue to provide financial security during extreme financial conditions.

How will policyholders be protected?

Your interests are being protected by a rigorous process which includes:

- consultation with the Prudential Regulation Authority and the Financial Conduct Authority, our industry regulators;
- review of the likely effect of the Scheme on policyholders by an Independent Expert; and
- approval of the Scheme by the High Court.

The High Court will only approve the transfer if it is satisfied that the proposals meet all the necessary legal requirements and treat policyholders appropriately. The High Court hearing is expected to take place on 21 November 2017. Policyholders have the right to raise objections where they believe they may be adversely affected and the High Court will take these objections into account in reaching its decision. You can find more detail on this in section 4 of the enclosed leaflet 'Scheme Guide'.

Following the High Court hearing we will place a notice on our website and add a recorded message to our helpline to confirm the High Court's decision.

What do I need to do?

Please ensure you read the enclosed documents and let anyone else with an interest in your policy (such as any nominated beneficiary, trustee in bankruptcy, executor, or personal representative) know about our proposals. If you need help to do this please call our helpline number below. You do not need to take any further action as a result of this letter unless you wish to object to these proposals.

We have enclosed two leaflets, 'Scheme Guide' and 'Your Questions Answered', to give you some more detail about the proposed changes.
