Our proposals

Phoenix Life Assurance Limited (PLAL), Standard Life Assurance Limited (SLAL) and Standard Life Pension Funds Limited (SLPF) are planning to transfer all policies to Phoenix Life Limited (Phoenix).

PLAL, SLAL, SLPF and Phoenix are all part of Phoenix Group, the UK's largest long-term savings and retirement business.

If our proposals are approved, Phoenix will become a much larger company and will issue new policies under a number of different brands, including Standard Life.

Your Phoenix Wealth policy, which is provided by Phoenix, is not transferring and will remain with Phoenix.

Your policy details and terms and conditions will remain the same and you won't see any changes to the way your policy works as a result of the transfer.

This guide explains what our proposed changes mean for you, the process we're following and what you should do if you have any concerns.

Throughout this guide, you'll see that we refer to the proposed changes as 'the Scheme' at times.

Please take the time to read this guide carefully.

2 THE PROCESS WE'RE FOLLOWING

Our customers are important to us and we want to make sure your interests are protected. Before we transfer any policies to Phoenix, we're following a rigorous process which includes:

Consultation with our regulators

We've consulted with our regulators to ensure they are fully aware of our proposals and have no objections to our plans. Our regulators are the Prudential Regulation Authority (PRA) and the Financial Conduct Authority (FCA).

Independent review of our proposals

We've appointed an Independent Expert, John Jenkins who is a Principal (a senior qualified actuary) at Milliman LLP, to give his opinion on the likely effect of the proposed transfer on all current Phoenix policyholders, and the policyholders transferring to Phoenix. His appointment has been approved by the PRA in consultation with the FCA.

He has written a report in which he details his review of the proposed transfer and his opinion on whether any group of policyholders (existing Phoenix policyholders or transferring policyholders) is materially adversely affected by the proposed transfer.

His report has been reviewed by our regulators and will help the High Court of England and Wales (the High Court) to reach its decision.

In his report, he concludes that the proposed Scheme will not have a material adverse effect on the security of benefits of Phoenix policyholders, the reasonable expectations of Phoenix policyholders with respect to their benefits or the standards of administration, service, management and governance applicable to the Phoenix policies.

You can find the Independent Expert's summary of the effect of the transfer on Phoenix Wealth policyholders in section 6 of this guide. You can see the full report and summary reports on our website at www.phoenixwealth.co.uk/transfer23.

The Independent Expert will also produce a supplementary report before the High Court hearing, in which he'll consider the likely effect of the transfer on policyholders in light of any developments that may have happened since his initial report. This will be available on our website around two weeks before the High Court hearing.

Writing to our customers

We're writing to certain Phoenix customers who have unit-linked and with-profits policies, where there are changes to the way the funds they are invested in are managed as a result of the Scheme.

We're not writing to Phoenix Wealth customers as there is no impact on their policies and no change to the way the Phoenix Wealth unit-linked funds are managed.

However, we've made this guide and other supporting information available to all customers on our website. This will help all Phoenix Wealth customers understand the Scheme, what this means for them and how to raise concerns or make an objection.

We've also set up a Phoenix helpline for you to contact if you have any questions or would like us to talk you through the information.

Approval from the Courts

The High Court process

To carry out the transfer, we've applied for approval from the High Court. We're asking the High Court to approve this transfer, and to approve the replacement of a number of previous Phoenix and PLAL transfer schemes.

The High Court will need to be satisfied, having considered the views of the Independent Expert, that all the necessary legal requirements have been met and that the proposals have no material adverse effect on policyholders. The High Court will only approve the transfer if it is appropriate to do so.

The High Court hearing is expected to take place at the High Court of Justice of England and Wales, The Rolls Building, 7 Rolls Buildings, Fetter Lane, London EC4A 1NL on 5 October 2023.

The Scottish Court of Session process

The policies of SLAL are covered by three previous transfer schemes which were approved by the Court of Session and allow for changes to be made to them with the Court's approval. To carry out the transfer, it is necessary to obtain the approval of the Court of Session to changes to three existing Schemes, listed below. We refer to these changes as the Proposed Replacements and Amendment.

- The 2006 Scheme which transferred The Standard Life Assurance Company's business to SLAL and became effective on 10 July 2006. We propose to replace the 2006 Scheme with the Scheme described in this guide.
- The 2011 Scheme transferred the business of Standard Life Investment Funds Limited to SLAL and became effective on 31 December 2011. We propose to replace the 2011 Scheme with the Scheme described in this guide.
- The 2019 Scheme, which transferred SLAL's European business to Standard Life International DAC and became effective on 29 March 2019. The 2019 Scheme will continue after the proposed transfer of SLAL's business to Phoenix but with SLAL's role replaced by Phoenix.

The Court of Session hearing is expected to take place at the Court of Session, Parliament House, Parliament Square, Edinburgh, EH1 1RQ, on 3 October 2023.

The Jersey and Guernsey Court process

There will be additional Schemes and court hearings for policies which are part of the business carried on in or from within Jersey (The Jersey Scheme), or that have been issued to customers resident in the Bailiwick of Guernsey (The Guernsey Scheme).

The hearing for the Jersey Scheme will take place at the Royal Court of Jersey at 9am on 17 October 2023 at the Royal Court of Jersey, Royal Court House, Royal Square, St Helier, Jersey JE1 1BA.

The hearing for the Guernsey Scheme will take place at the Royal Court of Guernsey at 9:30am on 20 October 2023 at the Royal Court of Guernsey, the Royal Court House, St Peter Port, Guernsey GY1 2NZ.

You can find more information about your local court process on our website at www.phoenixwealth.co.uk/transfer23.

If your policy falls under the Jersey Scheme or the Guernsey Scheme, the content of this guide applies to you.

Other overseas jurisdictions

If you are resident in the Isle of Man or live overseas, the terms of the Scheme apply to you if it is approved by the High Court.

Court dates

The date of any of the hearings could change. If they do, we'll place a notice on our websites.

Transfer goes ahead

The transfer will only go ahead if the High Court approves this Scheme and the Court of Session gives its approval to the changes to the existing SLAL Schemes.

If both Courts give their approval, we expect the transfer to take place on 27 October 2023.

The transfer of the business under the Jersey Scheme and the Guernsey Scheme will only go ahead if the Royal Courts of Jersey and Guernsey approve the relevant Schemes.

The process we're following

3 WHAT THIS MEANS FOR YOU

Your policy

If the Scheme goes ahead, you won't notice any changes. Your policy will not move and you'll remain a policyholder of Phoenix Wealth, who will continue to be responsible for your policy in the same way as now.

There will be no changes to the way we administer your policy as a result of the transfer. You'll continue to speak to the same team of people on the same telephone number as you do now. You'll continue to access policy information online in the same way as you do currently.

You'll see no difference to the way your policy works.

Your policy number and your policy terms and conditions won't change as a result of the Scheme.

There will be no change to the benefits payable on your policy, or to any guarantees you may have, as a result of the Scheme.

If you are paying premiums or receiving any payments, these will not be affected by the Scheme.

Unit-linked funds

Your policy will continue to be invested in the same unit-linked funds in the same way and by the same investment manager as now. The transfer will not change the number of units allocated to your policy, or the value of those units.

Currently, Phoenix has the right to wind up a Phoenix Wealth unit-linked fund, close it to new investment or modify its investment objectives, so long as the change is made on terms the Board considers fair to policyholders and policy terms and conditions don't prevent this.

For many other unit-linked funds, Phoenix currently has the right to wind up the unit-linked fund if its value falls below a threshold level. Following the transfer, the wind up threshold will be removed and the same rights that apply to the closure of Phoenix Wealth funds will apply.

If a fund is wound up or closed to new investment, an alternative fund will be made available. You'll have the right to choose a different fund if you prefer and switch investment free of charge.

Security for your policy

Financial security for your policy will continue to be maintained by Phoenix. Phoenix will hold more capital than the minimum amount required under current regulations. The amount of additional capital held will be underpinned by the Phoenix capital policy, which is part of the Scheme and aims to ensure that policies remain protected even under difficult financial conditions. The capital policy in the Scheme will include additional customer protections so that, in certain circumstances, Phoenix may be required to hold more capital than would be held under the current capital policy.

Phoenix will be a much bigger company after the transfer and will issue new policies under a number of different brands. In determining the amount of additional capital to hold, the Phoenix capital policy will take into account the increase in the size of Phoenix, the mixture of risks and the expected amount of new business to be issued. This will ensure that financial security for all policies is maintained.

4 WHAT YOU SHOULD DO NEXT

Please take the time to carefully read this guide, and the other information we've prepared, to make sure you fully understand our proposals.

You can find all the information on our website at www.phoenixwealth.co.uk/transfer23, including a 'Your Questions Answered' booklet to help answer any questions you may have. You'll also find more detail about our proposals, including the Independent Expert's full report, the summaries of his report and the full Scheme document.

Please let anyone else with an interest in your policy know about the Scheme. This might include a nominated beneficiary, a trustee in bankruptcy, an executor, a personal representative, or an assignee.

Need help?

If you have any questions, are concerned about how the proposed transfer may affect your policy, or would like us to talk you through our proposals, please get in touch.

You'll find our contact details in sections 1 and 8 of this guide.

If you're a trustee

If you're a trustee of a Phoenix Wealth policy or pension scheme, please make sure that all beneficiaries or scheme members know about the proposed transfer and are aware that full details are available on our website, or may be obtained by calling our helpline. If you'd like any assistance, please let us know by contacting our helpline. You'll find our contact details in sections 1 and 8 of this guide.

How to object

If you have concerns about the proposed transfer and feel you may be adversely affected, you have the right to raise an objection. Your objection will be presented to the High Court, and the High Court will take all objections into consideration when reaching its decision.

You can raise your concerns or object to the Scheme in the following ways.

1. By calling our helpline, writing to us or completing the online form

Please let us know if you have any concerns about the Scheme. If we can't address your concerns and you'd like to raise an objection, we'll make the High Court, the Independent Expert and our regulators aware of your objection before the hearing.

You can find our contact details in sections 1 and 8 of this guide.

Please raise any concerns or objections with us as soon as possible and preferably before 8 September 2023.

2. By attending the High Court hearing and presenting your objection in person

If you'd like to, you can attend the High Court hearing or you can ask a representative to do this for you. Your representative does not need legal training and could be a friend or relative, but they will need the permission of the Court to speak on your behalf.

If you or a representative wish to present your objection at the hearing, please let us know so we can contact you if there are any changes to the date of the hearing. We may also be able to deal directly with any concerns you have.

In deciding whether to give its approval, the Court of Session might take into account any objections to this Scheme. So we may also share your objection with the Court of Session if required.

If your policy falls under the Jersey Scheme or the Guernsey Scheme you can also raise an objection to the Royal Court of Jersey or Royal Court of Guernsey. You can find details of how to object on our website at www.phoenixwealth.co.uk/transfer23.

5 SUMMARY OF THE SCHEME

The Scheme brings together, and in certain places amends, the provisions in the existing schemes which apply to the companies. This has been done to simplify operation of the Scheme and reflect recent developments, for example in relation to law and regulation.

In this section, we summarise the key changes. You'll find the full Scheme document, which contains detailed technical information, on our website at www.phoenixwealth.co.uk/transfer23. You can request a copy by calling our helpline. You'll find our contact details in sections 1 and 8 of this guide.

The summary of the Scheme also applies to the Jersey Scheme and the Guernsey Scheme, except that these schemes do not affect SLPF and the relevant courts are the Royal Court of Jersey and the Royal Court of Guernsey, rather than the High Court.

Transfer of business

On the transfer date, which is expected to be 27 October 2023, subject to the approval of the High Court, and the approval of the Court of Session to change the existing SLAL Schemes, the three transferring companies (PLAL, SLAL and SLPF) will transfer all their policies and business to Phoenix. This means that Phoenix will become the insurer and will be responsible for the transferring policies.

On the transfer date, Phoenix will acquire all the rights, benefits and powers of the transferring companies in relation to the transferring policies. All policyholders will be entitled to the same rights, benefits and obligations with Phoenix as they had with the transferring companies before the transfer. Unless stated otherwise in the Scheme, any contracts between the transferring companies and any other organisation will also transfer, so that from the transfer date such contracts will be between Phoenix and that organisation.

For accounting and financial reporting purposes, the Scheme will be treated as effective between Phoenix and the transferring companies from 30 September 2023. However, this will not affect policyholders or their rights against the transferring companies.

Allocation of policies

Policies in PLAL and SLAL with-profits funds will transfer to corresponding new with-profits funds to be established in Phoenix. All other SLAL and PLAL policies will transfer to the Phoenix Non-Profit Fund.

The policies of SLPF are currently reinsured to the Heritage With-Profits Fund and Proprietary Business Fund in SLAL. These policies will transfer to the new Heritage With-Profits Fund in Phoenix and the Phoenix Non-Profit Fund respectively. The assets of SLPF will be allocated to the new Phoenix Heritage With-Profits Fund, other than the rights, benefits and powers of SLPF relating to the policies reinsured to the SLAL Proprietary Business Fund, which will be allocated to the Phoenix Non-Profit Fund.

No business will transfer into the existing Phoenix with-profits funds, and no Phoenix policies will transfer under the Scheme.

Excluded policies

If, for technical reasons, any policy or group of policies cannot be transferred, we will treat these policies for all practical purposes in the same way as if they had transferred.

To achieve this, a reinsurance arrangement will be put in place between Phoenix and the relevant transferring company until it is possible to transfer these policies.

Reinsurance

Under the Scheme, Phoenix will become party to all external third party reinsurance arrangements that the transferring companies are currently party to, and these will continue to operate in the same way as they did before the transfer, with Phoenix replacing the relevant transferring company.

Where there are reinsurance agreements between Phoenix and PLAL, or between SLAL and SLPF, on the date of the transfer these agreements will either stop where they are not needed, or will be replaced by inter-fund agreements between the funds of Phoenix to achieve the same financial effect.

Similarly, where there are arrangements between funds in the transferring companies or Phoenix, the Scheme provides for those arrangements to be replicated between the equivalent successor funds in Phoenix.

Capital policy

The Scheme will set out a capital policy which acts as an underpin to the amount of capital Phoenix will hold over that required by regulation. The capital policy will include three tests: a capital quantity test (relating to the amount of capital held to provide security), a capital quality test (relating to the amount of assets available to meet short-term outgoings) and a capital event test (relating to the protection of with-profits funds) sometimes called a 'capital event business requirement'. Phoenix must hold enough additional capital to satisfy all of the tests.

The capital policies set out in the current Phoenix and PLAL schemes contain a capital test which has a similar purpose to the capital quantity test, but the capital quality test and capital event test are additional policyholder protections.

The capital requirements set out in the current SLAL schemes are similar to the capital event test, but the capital quantity test and capital quality test are additional policyholder protections. However in practice SLAL already calculates its additional capital holdings using all three tests.

With-profits funds

A number of changes are proposed to the way with-profits funds are managed, including with-profit fund closure requirements, certification requirements, and the operation of the Heritage With-Profit Fund. In addition, the NPI With-Profits Fund will be closed. These changes do not affect Phoenix Wealth policies.

Unit-linked funds

With the exception of the unit-linked funds of external providers and the unit-linked funds within the Hill Samuel and Target Life fund ranges, the Scheme provides for Phoenix (subject to certain policyholder protections) to allow the division, merger or closure of unit-linked funds, the closure to new or further investment and the modification of their investment objectives to permit investment in reasonably similar assets. If a fund is closed, policyholders will be given units of the same value in a substitute fund having similar investment exposure where possible. However, these changes are not permitted if they are prohibited by the policy terms and conditions.

If any of these changes are made, the Board must consider the change is made on terms that are fair to policyholders taking into account the interests of policyholders and policyholders will be able to switch investment free of charge.

For the Hill Samuel range and the Target Life range of unit-linked funds Phoenix will have the same rights following the transfer as now.

Policies with options for a new or replacement policy

Policy options or other rights which allow a new, additional or replacement policy to be taken out will continue to apply after the transfer. If Phoenix is not issuing these exact policies, Phoenix may (subject to satisfying certain requirements) offer the nearest equivalent policy that Phoenix is then providing.

Data protection

Under the terms of the Scheme, Phoenix will become the 'data controller' meaning that it will take over the rights and responsibilities in respect of personal data which is associated with the transferring business.

Costs

The costs and expenses will be met by the Phoenix Shareholders' Fund. No costs will be passed on to customers.

Replacement of existing schemes and continuation of the SLAL 2019 Scheme

The Scheme will replace a number of existing schemes covering Phoenix, SLAL, PLAL and SLPF. Certain other schemes will continue, including the SLAL 2019 Scheme which will be amended to reflect that Phoenix has replaced SLAL. The replacement of the Phoenix and PLAL schemes is subject to the approval of the High Court. The replacement of the SLAL Schemes and the continuation of the SLAL 2019 Scheme are subject to the approval of the Court of Session.

Amendments to the Scheme

Phoenix and the transferring companies are allowed to make amendments or additions to the Scheme if they follow a specific process when doing so. This process involves making an application to the High Court, notifying the regulators, publicising the amendment if so directed by the High Court and obtaining a certificate from an independent actuary, stating that in their opinion the proposed amendments will not materially adversely affect the security or reasonable expectations of policyholders.

The process described above does not have to be followed if only minor or technical amendments are being made or if the Scheme specifically permits an amendment without going through this process.

6 SUMMARY OF THE INDEPENDENT EXPERT'S REPORT

The Independent Expert, John Jenkins who is a Principal (a senior qualified actuary) at Milliman LLP, has produced an independent report, in which he details his review of the proposed transfer and his opinion on whether any group of policyholders is materially adversely affected by the proposed transfer.

The Independent Expert has been selected on the basis of his experience and independence. As part of the process to appoint the Independent Expert we considered whether he held any policies with, or had previously done any work for, the companies involved in the transfer.

The Independent Expert holds two unit-linked pension policies provided by SLAL. Should the transfer proceed these policies will be treated in exactly the same way as all other policies of the same type and will have the same value after the transfer as before.

The Independent Expert has not carried out any work for the companies involved in the transfer during the last seven years.

We are confident that the Independent Expert's policies and previous work will not affect his judgement or his ability to act independently when considering the transfer proposals. His appointment has been approved by the PRA in consultation with the FCA.

In this section you can read the Independent Expert's summary of the effect of the transfer on Phoenix Wealth policyholders.

You can see the full report, and also his summary of the effect of the transfer on all policyholders, on our website at www.phoenixwealth.co.uk/transfer23. You can request a copy of any of the documents on our website by calling our helpline.

This summary applies equally to the Jersey Scheme and the Guernsey Scheme.

Summary of the Independent Expert's Report

Introduction

As set out in this guide, Phoenix Group proposes to carry out an insurance business transfer in order to combine four of its life insurance companies into one company (the one referred to as Phoenix) in order to simplify its corporate structure. This requires the approval or consent of the High Court (in England) and the Court of Session (in Scotland). I have been appointed by Phoenix Group as the Independent Expert under the relevant legislation to consider and report to the courts on this proposed transfer, and I have been approved to carry out this role by the PRA in consultation with the FCA.

I am a Fellow of the Institute and Faculty of Actuaries, and a Principal in Milliman LLP, part of Milliman Inc., which is a global consulting firm. I have over 35 years of experience in the UK life insurance industry and I have previously carried out the role of Independent Expert for transfers of life insurance business. My independence to carry out this role for this transfer has been set out separately within this guide.

I have produced a full and detailed report (my "Full Report"), which considers the effects of the transfer on all of the policyholders in all four companies and which sets out my conclusions, and includes my reliances and limitations in producing the report. My Full Report is available to all policyholders and to any interested party who wishes to see it, and can be viewed at www.phoenixwealth.co.uk/transfer23. Alternatively, my Full Report can be obtained as set out within Section 8 of this guide.

I have produced a number of summary reports, each tailored to specific groups of policyholders. This tailored summary report is for the policyholders of Phoenix Wealth, whose policies provide unit-linked benefits through personal pension policies, self-invested pensions and investment bonds.

The Chief Actuary of Phoenix has produced a report on the proposed transfer. I have considered this report, and I have consulted with the Chief Actuary in the course of carrying out my work.

Set out below is a summary of my considerations and conclusions under the following headings:

- Summary of the Scheme.
- Determination of policy benefits and benefit expectations.
- Security of policy benefits.
- Other aspects, including standards of policy administration and service.

I will produce a Supplementary Report prior to the final court hearings. My Supplementary Report will provide updates as necessary to my analyses and considerations, and will comment on any queries, issues or objections arising from any of the policyholders involved or from other interested parties. My Supplementary Report will also provide any applicable updates to the conclusions reached in my Full Report.

Summary of the Scheme

The Scheme is the legal document which gives effect to the transfer. It essentially provides for all the assets, liabilities and policies of PLAL, SLAL and SLPF (which is a small subsidiary of SLAL) to be transferred to Phoenix. All current Phoenix Wealth policyholders will remain within Phoenix.

The Scheme replaces a number of previous schemes and also incorporates a number of practical updates to the previous schemes to which I refer as necessary below. The Scheme makes no change to any policy terms and conditions. All of the costs of carrying out the Scheme will be borne by the Phoenix Group shareholders, and no such costs will be borne either directly or indirectly by any policyholders.

Determination of policy benefits and benefit expectations

For Phoenix Wealth unit-linked policies, the determination of policy benefits will continue as currently, including the approaches and standards used for the determination of unit prices. The Scheme retains provisions for unit-linked funds to be closed to new investments, merged with or replaced by other unit-linked funds, and for unit-linked investment objectives to be modified, where this is not inconsistent with the relevant policy terms. This will enable Phoenix to continue to manage the enlarged unit-linked business to best meet policyholder needs efficiently as unit-linked funds grow or decline. The Scheme includes appropriate protections to ensure that the terms of any unit-linked fund mergers or replacements or modifications to investment objectives are fair to policyholders. The provisions do not apply where Phoenix Wealth policies are invested in externally managed funds, as any changes here are the responsibility of the external manager.

The determination and application of charges and expenses to the unit-linked funds and policies will be the same as currently. Given that Phoenix, PLAL, and SLAL already have common management approaches and governance structures, I can see no reason why the future consideration of charges and expenses within the enlarged Phoenix following the implementation of the Scheme would be materially different to that which currently applies.

Hence, for Phoenix Wealth policyholders, I conclude that the Scheme will have no material adverse effect on the determination of policyholder benefits or on expectations in respect of policyholder benefits.

Security of policy benefits

The security of policy benefits is provided through the following:

- The reserves and capital which the PRA requires all life companies to hold to meet expected outcomes and to cover adverse circumstances and events in relation to the risks to which the company is exposed.
- The additional capital, over and above the PRA's requirements, which a particular life company elects to hold. This is often referred to as the capital buffer or the capital policy requirement.
- The governance processes which a life company uses to run its business and to manage the risks to which it is exposed.

I consider each of these aspects below.

Regulatory capital requirements

The normal UK regulatory capital requirements will apply to the enlarged Phoenix following the implementation of the Scheme. These regulatory capital requirements are intended to ensure that a life company can withstand adverse circumstances and events equivalent to a 1-in-200 year event. There will be material capital efficiency benefits arising from combining the four life companies into one, and I have thus reviewed this aspect carefully.

Capital policy

Currently Phoenix, PLAL and SLAL adopt essentially the same capital policy. In particular, a capital buffer is held sufficient to enable Phoenix, PLAL and SLAL to meet their regulatory capital requirements (including the 1-in-200 year event requirement) following a 1-in-10 year adverse event. This same level of capital buffer (i.e. ability to meet regulatory capital requirements following a 1-in-10 year adverse event) will apply to the enlarged Phoenix following the implementation of the Scheme. Phoenix is required by the Scheme to adopt and comply with this capital policy, including the 1-in-10 year level of capital buffer and other aspects contained within the Scheme. My Full Report contains analyses which show that the enlarged Phoenix would have been able as at 31 December 2022 to meet its capital policy had the Scheme been effective at that date.

Currently, all SLAL policyholders benefit from certain additional capital protections, which derive from the demutualisation of Standard Life in 2006. These additional capital protections are incorporated into the Phoenix capital policy within the Scheme, and will benefit all policyholders (including current Phoenix Wealth policyholders) in the enlarged Phoenix following the implementation of the Scheme.

Governance processes

There will be no material change to the governance processes of Phoenix as a result of the Scheme.

Summary in relation to the security of policy benefits

Taking all of the above aspects into consideration, I conclude that for all Phoenix Wealth policyholders the Scheme will have no material adverse effect on their security of benefits.

Other aspects (including standards of policy administration and service)

In addition to the key aspects of policy benefits and the security of policy benefits, I have considered a number of further aspects, including the possible effects of the Scheme on standards of policy administration and service, the ability of Phoenix to implement the transfer in practical terms and to deal with queries arising from policyholders, and the availability of protections such as the UK Financial Services Compensation Scheme. I am satisfied that the Scheme will have no material adverse effect on Phoenix Wealth policyholders in these areas.

Overall Conclusion

Taking all of the above considerations into account, I conclude that the Scheme will have no material adverse effects on any of the Phoenix Wealth policyholders.

My other summary reports contain this same conclusion in respect of the other groups of policyholders to whom each summary report is applicable.

I have provided all the relevant Independent Expert certificates to allow the Scheme to replace the previous schemes.
